Dear Members,

The Kowloon Tsai Home Owners Association has always upheld its core value of fulfilling social responsibility and fully supports the Eighth Legislative Council General Election. Elections are an important mechanism through which citizens participate in public affairs. It is our sincere hope that this election will return representatives of outstanding professionalism, integrity, and foresight—individuals capable of uniting the community, advancing Hong Kong's long-term development, and safeguarding the shared interests and well-being of all citizens.

Polling Day will be held on Sunday, 7 December 2025. We sincerely encourage all eligible voters to actively take part in this important civic process, exercise their right to vote, and fulfil their civic duty by electing Legislative Council members who genuinely reflect public sentiment and are committed to promoting stability and prosperity in our society. Every vote carries weight and represents your commitment to Hong Kong's future.

Polling Details

Date: Sunday, 7 December 2025
